

I have been informed by Indiana's Attorney General that this action would weaken our state's current law regarding telemarketing. I greatly appreciate that I can sit down with my family without being disturbed by someone that I have no wish to speak to. I therefore ask that you reject this petition by the Consumer Bankers Association. I believe Indiana's law on the matter is working fine as is, and groups like this are just trying to bypass the will of the residents of this state, and others. If our law was not working, then there would not be over three million people in Indiana on the do-not-call list. I hope you take the opinion of the people, that benefit from the privacy this law provides, seriously.
